

Wilkus Architects | Marketing Intern

Wilkus Architects is an established architectural design firm since 1990. We are committed to providing new and innovative design through the use of creative cutting edge technology. We offer comprehensive services with a staff that has the means to achieve the specific needs of your business to help you reach your design goals. You will find success with our firm because we offer the resources of a large company with the personal attention of a small practice.

Wilkus Architects is currently seeking a marketing intern that can bring our brand, website and social media presence to the next level. We are looking for someone with a great eye for design and enthusiastic about helping us grow our business through marketing. This individual should have exceptional presentation and communication skills.

Wilkus Architects offers a collaborative work environment and is pursuing an individual who works well with in a team.

Responsibilities:

- Website development and content creation
- Social media management (Facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn)
- Develop content for graphic presentations
- Marketing Materials for clients

General Job Requirements:

- Currently pursuing a degree in Marketing or Graphic Design
- Minimum GPA 3.0
- Design experience in Squarespace, InDesign and Photoshop
- Photography background (preferred)
- Strong written and verbal skills
- Excellent planning and organizational skills