

LAKE MINNETONKA RESIDENCE

Orono, MN

The client wanted a non-traditional home using commercial materials and construction techniques. A very restrictive site and zoning ordinance lead to a creative solution that enhanced the non-traditional design. The design was also a study in energy efficiency, using materials, windows and site positioning. BIM technology was used in 3D studies, planning presentations, energy code takeoffs, and coordination with structural design.

