

PORTERHOUSE Lakeville, MN

The client wanted this project to expand their brand. Wilkus Architects designed a 4,400 sq. ft. prototype that allows the client to roll out multiple locations in the future based on a scalable, economic, and identifiable image.

