

THREE 31 EXPRESS

Rochester International Airport
Rochester, MN

Rochester International wanted to update their underused and outdated airport restaurant. Wilkus Architects provided services through design development to provide the airport with a first class modern facility. New security requirements made the project visibility a challenge. The final design allowed visibility from the non-secured ticketing area to the secured gate area where the restaurant is located.

THREE 31